

KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN.

VOLUME XI.—NO. 14.

LOUISVILLE, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1903.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

INTERESTING

Meetings of the Ladies' Auxiliary and County Board Held This Week.

Emmet Celebration and Irish Field Day Were Financial Successes.

Ladies Will Hold Charter Roll Open For Three Weeks.

COUNTY BOARD QUARTERLY MEETINGS

The County Board, Ancient Order of Hibernians, and the Ladies' Auxiliary held simultaneous meetings at Hibernian Hall Tuesday night. The County Board originally intended to meet on Wednesday, but as several of the members were to be out of the city on that night the change of dates was decided upon. The ladies met in the large hall and the members of the County Board met in the ante-room.

The meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary was well attended and was called principally to hear the reports of the various committees in charge of the Robert Emmet centenary celebration. Miss Mary Cavanaugh presided and congratulated her fellow-members on the good attendance. Miss Florence Clancy was initiated. It was determined to leave the charter open until October 21, and one lady pledged herself to secure thirty new members by that date. The reports of the various committees showed that after all bills had been paid a comfortable balance was left in the treasury as a result of the Robert Emmet celebration. This put everybody in a good humor and gave the ladies confidence in themselves for the future.

The following Standing Committee was elected for the ensuing term: Miss Mary Sheridan, Chairman; Mrs. Thomas Keenan, Mrs. William M. Higgins, Miss Virginia Barrett and Miss Josephine Godfrey. A rising vote of thanks was extended to all who took part in the recent Robert Emmet centenary celebration and the Secretary was instructed to tender the thanks of the Ladies' Auxiliary to each person by letter.

Before the County Board adjourned the ladies sent Misses Josephine Godfrey, Lillie Callahan and Ella O'Connell to extend the members an invitation to attend their meeting. The invitation was accepted and as they filed into the large hall the County Board members were given a great ovation. State Secretary William T. Mehan welcomed the County Board in behalf of the Ladies' Auxiliary and gave a brief recital of what the ladies had accomplished.

Miss Cavanaugh, the President, called upon County President Sullivan to respond, which he did in an unusually happy manner. Mr. Sullivan expressed himself as being proud of the progress being made by the ladies, and said they were a credit to the city and State. He hoped they would continue their success, and referred briefly to the grand mission before them. The ladies, he said, possess the spirit that has beaten in Irish hearts for centuries, and closed with an eloquent eulogy of Irish womanhood and manhood.

Joseph P. McGinn also spoke, congratulating the ladies on the success of their recent celebration and promised his hearty support. County Secretary Pat Welsh predicted that within a year's time the Ladies' Auxiliary would outnumber in membership the four divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. John P. Mellon and Tom Callahan, of Division 4, both pledged the support of Limerick to the auxiliary. The meeting adjourned to meet on October 21.

County President Pat Sullivan presided over the meeting of the County Board. Roll call showed every division represented by two or more members. The meeting was called to hear reports of the various divisions. Division 3 reported that it had 107 members in good standing. State Treasurer George Butler, who was also Chairman of the finance committee for the Irish field day, made his report, showing a handsome balance on hand after all bills were paid.

It was determined to hold quarterly meetings of the board hereafter in January, April, July and October. In pursuance of this agreement the next meeting of the County Board will be held on the last Friday in October. At this juncture the board was called into the meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary. Before adjourning the County Board received an invitation to attend the big initiation to be given by the Covington division on October 28.

POOR MISSIONS.

The Rev. Father Albert Stroebele, missionary to St. Andrew's Island in the Caribbean sea, gave an entertaining and instructive lecture Monday night to the members of Father Doyle Council, Young Men's Institute, of Cincinnati. The lecturer was given the greatest attention while he related his experiences on southern islands during the past two years. After the lecture the members of Father Doyle Council decided to give a eucharist either in October or November, the proceeds to be given to Father Stroebele, to assist him in building mission chapels in his beloved islands. Father Stroebele is on a collecting tour through the United States and has been given permission by the Most Rev. Archbishop Elder to preach or lecture and collect for his missions in all the churches of the archdiocese of Cincinnati.

HAPPY COUPLE

Celebrated the Fiftieth Anniversary of Their Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Twickler celebrated their golden wedding at their home, 839 East Chestnut street, on Tuesday, instead of on August 31, the actual fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Twickler have six living children—George, Henry, Joseph, John and Misses Lily and Mary Twickler. The latter is an Ursuline nun, now known as Sister Alexius, and is stationed at St. Joseph's Orphan's Home. Mr. and Mrs. Twickler were married in Louisville, August 31, 1853.

In honor of their fiftieth anniversary a solemn high mass was celebrated by the Right Rev. Monsignor Francis Zabler at St. Martin's church on Tuesday. After the mass Mr. and Mrs. Twickler renewed the vows they made fifty years ago, and Father Zabler preached a sermon on the sanctity of the marriage tie. The Rev. Father Thome was deacon and the Rev. Father Berresheim sub-deacon of the mass. The choir sang Haydn's Imperial Mass. A trio by Joseph Hubbach, George Middendorf and Miss Theresa Reverman was excellently rendered, as were also solos by Mrs. Ida Noske and Mrs. George Krippenstapel.

A unique feature of the celebration was that Henry Middendorf and Mrs. Mary Wobben, who were the attendants at the marriage fifty years ago, were present and acted as attendants at the fiftieth anniversary on Tuesday. The church was filled with the friends and relatives of the happy couple.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Twickler gave an informal reception at their home on East Chestnut street. Many called to wish them happy returns of the day and numerous handsome presents were received. Mr. Twickler was born in Prussia, Germany, seventy years ago, but has spent the greater part of his life in Louisville. Mrs. Twickler was born at Oldenberg, Germany, and came to Louisville when quite young. Before her marriage she was Miss Dora Middendorf.

NEW CONVENT

Established By the Dominican Sisters in Southern Iowa.

The Sisters of St. Dominic, of which St. Catherine's at Springfield, Ky., is the mother house, have been engaged to teach the parochial school at Denison, Crawford county, Iowa, this year. Six of the Dominican Sisters have been sent there and have established the Convent of St. Rose of Lima. Their new school is attached to the parish of St. Rose of Lima, of which the Rev. Father M. J. Farrelly is pastor. Sister Alexia, who was Miss Brigid O'Sullivan, of this city, is the Mother Superior of the new convent and director of the school.

The Dominican Sisters are members of a great teaching order, which has now twenty-three novitiate houses in the United States. These houses are located as far east as Massachusetts and as far west as Spalding, Kas., and as far south as Memphis. More than 200 Sisters are engaged in the work of teaching the young. Kentuckians should be especially proud of the Dominican Sisters, as the order was founded by Kentucky girls at Springfield in 1822. Since that time the order has grown and flourished until branch houses have been established all over the land. In Louisville the Dominican Sisters conduct the Holy Rosary Academy, on Ormsby avenue, and the St. Louis Bertrand parochial school. At Springfield they conduct St. Catherine's Academy for girls. This year about ninety pupils are enrolled. The demand for teachers of this order is increasing each year and is now greater than the supply.

GOOD PROGRESS

Is Being Made by Sarto Council and New Members Secured.

Sarto Council, Young Men's Institute, at Owensboro, held an interesting meeting last Sunday. In addition to its original forty-one members, eight new candidates were initiated, and the officers promise to have seventy-five members before the new year. Sarto Council was organized on August 23, a little over one month ago. Since that time it has secured new and commodious quarters and is making favorable progress.

Fred Arnold presided over the meeting Sunday and Albert Oberst, delegate to the Grand Council, reported what had been done by that body. Grand Secretary-Treasurer George J. Lautz was present and made a brief address before installing James B. Clark the Grand Director. Mr. Clark spoke favorably of the Young Men's Institute, and promised to set to work at once with a view toward organizing new councils of the order in Henderson and other towns adjacent to Owensboro.

FIRST MASS

To Be Celebrated by the Rev. Father Reverman, Recently Ordained.

Gifted Young Man Has Spent Many Years Preparing Himself.

Church of the Immaculate Conception Will Be Crowded Tomorrow.

SPLENDID MUSIC WILL BE RENDERED

The Rev. Father Theodore Reverman, D. C., recently ordained in Europe, will celebrate his first mass at the Church of

REV. THEO. REVERMAN.
Gifted young priest returns home from Europe with high honors.

the Immaculate Conception, Eighth and Grayson streets, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The other officers of the mass will be the Rev. Father Heiling, deacon, and the Rev. Father John Bohlsen, sub-deacon. The sermon will be preached by the Very Rev. Father Bernard Westerman. The choir will sing Gounod's Mass, with Gounod's "Unfold" chorus from the Redemption at the offertory. Other special numbers will be Haydn's "Cantamus" and Owens' "Ave Maria."

The Rev. Father Reverman was born and raised in Louisville. He is the son of Mrs. Louise Reverman, of Seventh and Jefferson streets. She and another son, August Reverman, an attorney, went to Europe to see Father Reverman ordained and returned with him to Louisville on Thursday. Father Reverman attended the parochial schools in this city and then spent one year at St. Meinrad's College, Indiana. After that he spent six years in Buffalo as a student at Canisius College, under the direction of the Jesuits. Later he spent four years studying theology and canon law at the great university at Innsbruck, Austria. During the last two years he has been attending the French seminary at Rome, which is also under the direction of the Jesuits. Before his ordination Father Reverman received the degree of Doctor of Canon Law.

It is not known yet whether Father Reverman will remain in the diocese of Louisville or will go elsewhere. The people of the Immaculate Conception congregation are proud of the acquirements of the young priest, as he is one of their own boys. The church will be crowded by his many friends and acquaintances tomorrow, as all are anxious to receive the first blessing of a young priest.

FINAL SUMMONS

Answered by Sister Hildegarde of the Sisters Charity.

The sad intelligence of the death of Sister Hildegarde, at Nazareth, brought sorrow to many homes in Louisville. She died at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, but the news of her death did not reach Louisville in time to permit any member of her family to attend the funeral. Sister Hildegarde was sixty years of age and had been a member of the Sisters of Charity at Nazareth more than thirty-five years. Before entering the order she was Miss Anna O'Daly. Born at St. Mary's of the Knobs, Ind., she came to Louisville with her family when quite a small child and was well known in this city before entering the convent. She was a sister of Capt. Eugene O'Daly, of the Louisville detective force, and of Capt. John O'Daly, of Seventh and Zane streets.

After serving her novitiate Sister Hildegarde was made a teacher of fancy needlework at Nazareth Academy. Owing to her great executive ability she was on numerous occasions sent to found new missions, notably those at Hardinsburg and Frankfort, Ky. She was likewise the first Mother Superior of St. Peter's Orphan Asylum at Lowell, Mass. At the latter place she was taken ill three years ago. Her ailment was catarrh of the stomach. She was ordered home with the view of restoring her to health, but the malady had gained such headway that she sank continually and slowly until death came to her relief. She died as she lived, with charity to all and ill-will for none. On Thursday of last week her brother, Capt. Eugene O'Daly, and his estimable wife visited Nazareth and spent several hours at the bedside of Sister Hildegarde, who knew that her earthly career was at an end. Her prayers and her thoughts even then were not for herself, but for the dear ones she was leaving behind. Death came to her as a peaceful sleep to a worn out child. On Sunday she was laid to rest in the quiet little churchyard at Nazareth. Masses were offered for the repose of her soul at more than fifty convents on Sunday and at the Cathedral and St. Louis Bertrand church the prayers of the congregation were offered that she might rest in peace.

GOOD TASTE

Shown in Design For a Milwaukee Family Monument Nearing Completion.

Col. Michael Muldoon has nearing completion a handsome family monument for the Keene family of Milwaukee. The monument is to be thirty feet in height and is made of Vermont granite. The design is that of an Ionic cross, similar to the handsome Muldoon family monument in Cave Hill cemetery. The order for the monument was given by the Hon. Francis Keene, United States Consul at Florence, Italy. Mr. Keene was formerly a newspaper writer and later a State Senator in the Wisconsin Legislature. He was appointed United States Consul and left for his post last May. Mr. Keene married a Louisville lady, Miss Emory Semple, so that he is almost as much at home in Louisville as in Milwaukee. In a recent letter to Col. Muldoon Mr. Keene inquires for a number of Louisville people and invites the Colonel and his family to visit him in Italy.

The Ionic cross takes its name from the island of Iona, the place to which St. Columba, or St. Columbkille, was banished from Ireland. Its ground was made sacred by the lives of St. Columba and his followers and for centuries was the burial place of kings, not only of Ireland and Scotland, but of rulers as far South as the Mediterranean sea. Duncan, King of Scotland, who was murdered by Macbeth, was the last monarch laid to rest on Iona. It was from that island that the Irish custom of wakes is said to have originated. When the body of a dead monarch was brought for interment the monks conducted religious rites and ceremonies for several days before the interment took place. The Ionic cross is somewhat similar to the Irish cross, for in addition to the cross proper it has a circle around the arms of the cross.

The Keene monument when erected will be an unusually handsome one and will be finished with the good taste for which the Muldoon Monument Company is noted. This same company only a few years ago erected the $500,000 monument for the Mackey family in New York.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. Margaret Fleck, a well known German-American lady of the East End, died at her home, 1010 Milton avenue, at noon last Saturday. Her funeral took place from St. Vincent de Paul's church, Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. The deceased was eighty-nine years old, and was the mother of Chris and Nicholas Leightman.

Mrs. Katie McManhon, aged fifty-five years, died at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth's Hospital on Tuesday, after a brief attack of pneumonia. The deceased was the widow of P. J. McManhon and the mother of George R. and Harry A. McManhon. She was well known in the East End and noted for her many works of charity. The funeral took place from the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Miss Katherine Tighe, a highly respected young lady of New Albany, died at St. Edward's Hospital on Wednesday, after a brief attack of typhoid fever. The deceased was the daughter of William Tighe, of 1102 Ekin avenue, and a sister of Mrs. John J. Morgan and of William, Thomas and John Tighe. Her funeral took place from Holy Trinity church Friday morning. The bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends in their great grief.

Miss Winnie Dealy died suddenly at her place of employment, 1914 First street, on Monday morning. The deceased was born in Ireland twenty-six years ago, but had been in Louisville during the past seven years. She had no immediate relatives in Louisville. Her mother and father are still living in Ireland and two brothers are living in California. The remains were taken to Dougherty & Keenan's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. The funeral took place from St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Miss Dealy was noted for her pleasant and cheerful disposition, and her death was a great shock to her friends.

GOOD FOR INDIANA.

The recent Grand Council of the Young Men's Institute, Indiana jurisdiction, at Indianapolis, seems to have given the order a renewed impetus in our sister State. Since the Grand Council adjourned Brightwood Council has been established in Indianapolis and new councils were also established at Linton and Connersville, while former councils at Brazil and Columbus have been reorganized.

SEVERAL CHANGES

Made in the Standing of Contestants in World's Fair Contest.

Lieut. Tom Fitzgibbons Jumps Into First Place in Single Men's Race.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hennessy Still Ahead in Married Couple Class.

IRISH EXHIBIT AT THE GREAT FAIR

As can be seen by the table given below several changes have been made in the standing of the candidates for the Kentucky Irish American's World's Fair contest. Lieut. Tom Fitzgibbons has taken a good lead in the single men's race, while Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hennessy continue to maintain their lead in the married couple's race. Miss Katie Henley now leads the unmarried ladies, though several others are close behind her.

LIEUTENANT FITZGIBBONS
Now leads in this paper's great World's Fair contest.

It may be well to state again the nature of this contest. The Kentucky Irish American proposes to give a trip to the World's Fair at St. Louis next year to the most popular married couple, to the most popular single gentleman and to the most popular single lady. Railroad transportation and a week at the Lindell Hotel will be furnished free to the winners in each of the three races. The test of popularity is to be the number of votes cast through the Kentucky Irish American. One dollar will get you the Kentucky Irish American for a year. At the same time you are entitled to cast fifty votes for your favorite candidate with each dollar paid in. Besides that, ballots are printed in the Kentucky Irish American each week. These you can also cut out and cast for your favorite candidate. Old subscribers who are in arrears will also be allowed to cast fifty votes for each dollar paid in.

During the past few days the standing of the contestants has changed several times, and for awhile Mr. and Mrs. Dan McKenna led in the married couple's race, but friends of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hennessy came forward and placed them once more in the lead, though Mr. and Mrs. McKenna are a close second. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. McGinn are tie for second place. Charles Raidy and Patrolman Dave Burke took a spurt and are tie for second place with 150 votes each. John Cavanaugh is now in third place with 105 votes. Miss Mamie Reilly and Miss Alice Walsh are tie for second place, and it is suspected that their friends are holding back ballots for them. Several new entries are expected in all classes before the standing will be published again.

While the race is open to people of every creed and nationality, the contest seems to appeal particularly to the Irish-Americans and members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. The national convention of the Hibernians will be held in St. Louis next year and the winners of the Kentucky Irish American's prize contests will be sent to St. Louis while the big convention is in session.

Moreover, Ireland will be well represented by a grand exhibit at the World's Fair. Dr. J. J. Kane and P. J. O'Brien, two prominent Irish-Americans of St. Louis, recently visited Ireland in the interest of the fair. It is expected that Irish industries representing every county in Ireland will be displayed. Models of the big Atlantic liners will be sent from Belfast. Displays of Irish linen, poplin and lace will also be made and samples of Irish marble will be a revelation to many visitors at the fair. The exhibit will be made with the view of showing visitors that if Ireland has not her share of the world's trade, her people have plenty of the industrial skill.

This offer of the Kentucky Irish American is an exceedingly liberal one. It should be taken advantage of. All that it requires is a little hustling on the part of yourself and friends.

The standing of the contestants is as follows:

MARRIED COUPLE.
John H. Hennessy and wife.....850

| | |
|--------------------------------|-----|
| Dan McKenna and wife..... | 812 |
| Joseph P. McGinn and wife..... | 200 |
| John J. Sullivan and wife..... | 200 |
| Thomas Dolan and wife..... | 150 |
| Michael Reichert and wife..... | 150 |
| Thomas D. Claire and wife..... | 100 |
| John Meagher and wife..... | 50 |
| Pat P. McCarthy and wife..... | 50 |
| Harry Brady and wife..... | 50 |

| | |
|-------------------------|-----|
| SINGLE LADY. | |
| Katie Henley..... | 150 |
| Mamie Reilly..... | 100 |
| Alice Walsh..... | 100 |
| Catherine Conadeau..... | 50 |
| Julia Kelly..... | 50 |
| Mary Cavanaugh..... | 50 |
| Margaret Norton..... | 50 |

| | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| SINGLE GENTLEMAN. | |
| Lieut. Tom Fitzgibbons..... | 500 |
| Dave Burke..... | 150 |
| Charles Raidy..... | 150 |
| John Cavanaugh..... | 105 |
| Ed Toomey..... | 100 |
| Louis Dugan..... | 100 |
| Frank McDonough..... | 52 |
| Ed Dalton..... | 50 |
| Tom Camfield..... | 50 |
| John Crotty..... | 50 |
| Will McNally..... | 50 |
| James Hand..... | 50 |
| Tom Furlong..... | 50 |
| George Percy Wells..... | 15 |

WILL CELEBRATE

The Fifteenth Anniversary of the Dedication of St. Frances' Church.

Tomorrow will be the fifteenth anniversary of the dedication of the Church of St. Frances of Rome in Clifton. The celebration will be in keeping with the occasion. At 10 o'clock the Rev. Father Thomas W. White, the beloved pastor, will celebrate solemn high mass, when he will be assisted by several other priests of the diocese. An augmented choir and orchestra will furnish excellent music.

At 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening solemn vespers will be sung and the Rev. Dr. O. P. Ackerman will preach the anniversary sermon. Benediction of the most blessed sacrament will follow and the celebration will close with the singing of the Te Deum. In the evening the music will also be of a high order. Many of the best singers in the city and a full orchestra will assist the regular choir. All desiring to attend these services may reach the church via Crescent Hill cars.

During the fifteen years that St. Frances' church has been built Father White has seen his parish grow from a mere handful of Catholics scattered over a vast range of territory to its present ample proportions. Father White has proved an energetic and faithful worker in the vineyard of the Lord and is now reaping the temporal reward of duty well performed.

BIG SMOKER.

To Be Given by Trinity Council in Honor of New Grand President.

Trinity Council, Young Men's Institute, held a well attended meeting Monday night. President Tom Garvey was in the chair, and considerable business of a routine nature was transacted. James B. Kelly, the new Grand President, and George J. Lautz, who was re-elected Grand Secretary-Treasurer, were present and were given quite an ovation. A committee was appointed to arrange for a eucharist to be held at Trinity Hall on Thursday, October 22.

The members decided to give a reception and smoker next Monday night in honor of James B. Kelly, the new Grand President. A number of good speakers will be on hand and a very enjoyable evening is promised. Trinity Council does well to honor Grand President Kelly. He is one of the pioneer members of the Young Men's Institute in Louisville and has always been a hard worker. No entertainment, no enterprise has been without his earnest and energetic work. Mr. Kelly is a great organizer and has a knack of holding his organization together after it is made. Since his election, about ten days ago, he has set on foot the machinery for the organization of two new councils. The Young Men's Institute will certainly grow and flourish in Kentucky under his admirable leadership.

IRELAND MOURNS

The Death of Monsignor Gargan, President of Maynooth College.

The Right Rev. Monsignor Gargan, President of St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, died very recently in Ireland, and the whole country mourns. Monsignor Gargan was born in the County Meath in 1819. At the age of seventeen he entered Maynooth and was ordained in 1843. He then went to Paris, where he became professor of metaphysics in the Irish college. Two years later he returned to Maynooth and was appointed to the chair of humanity.

Father Gargan knew intimately every member of the Catholic hierarchy now living and many long since dead, besides being acquainted with every priest who studied at Maynooth during the last sixty years. At his death Cardinal Logue officiated at the solemn mass of requiem. His remains were laid to rest in the College cemetery.

ROSARY SUNDAY

Will Be Celebrated at the Church of St. Louis Bertrand.

Beautiful and Instructive Ceremonies to Be Held Morning and Afternoon.

Many Devout Catholics Will Take Advantage of Toties Quoties Indulgence.

DEVOTIONS ALL OF THIS MONTH

The month of October is the month of devotion to the holy rosary, and in every Catholic church special devotions are held and the rosary recited at certain intervals. Of course these devotions are more frequent and more elaborate in those churches which are under the care of the Dominican priests. At the Church of St. Louis Bertrand, in this city, the devotions began Thursday evening and will continue every evening at 7:30 o'clock throughout the month, except on Saturdays. The devotion consists of the recitation of the rosary, a short sermon and benediction of the most blessed sacrament.

Tomorrow the great feast of the holy rosary will be celebrated at St. Louis Bertrand's church. At 10:30 o'clock solemn high mass will be celebrated. The Very Rev. Father E. A. Martin, O. P., will preach the sermon. The choir, under the direction of Prof. Charles Weiss, will render an excellent musical programme. Solemn vespers will be sung at 8:30 o'clock in the afternoon and will be followed by the rosary procession, a sermon on the rosary by the Rev. Father Matthew L. Heagan, O. P., and benediction of the most blessed sacrament.

In the rosary procession 150 children will take part and the fifteen beautiful rosary banners will be used. Each banner represents a different mystery of the rosary. The banners representing the joyful mysteries are blue, the sorrowful mysteries red and the glorious mysteries white. The rosary altar will be elaborately decorated with roses and the entire church will present an unusually beautiful appearance.

Father Heagan, who will preach the rosary sermon, is a gifted and eloquent young man and during his brief stay in Louisville has made a profound impression as a pulpit orator.

Another feature of interest at St. Louis Bertrand's church tomorrow will be the "Toties quoties" indulgence. All those who have worthily received the sacraments of penance and holy eucharist can gain a plenary indulgence each time they approach the rosary altar and say a few prayers for the intention of our Holy Father Pope Pius X. These indulgences can be gained from sunset this evening until sunset tomorrow evening. This devotion is growing and each recurring year sees an increase of the number of faithful who approach the sacraments and then gain the indulgence by making repeated visits to the rosary altar. No doubt the church of St. Louis Bertrand will be crowded both at the late mass tomorrow and at the afternoon services. The general public is always welcome to attend the Dominican church.

FATHER LAVELLE

Appointed Vicar General of the Archdiocese of New York.

The Very Rev. Father M. J. Lavelle has been appointed Vicar General of the Archdiocese of New York, a position left vacant since the consecration of Archbishop Farley. Father Lavelle was born in New York City forty-seven years ago, and was ordained a priest in 1879. He was at once appointed junior assistant of the new Cathedral. All of his life as a priest has been in connection with the Cathedral parish. Since 1887 he has been rector of the Cathedral. In 1897 he was elected President of the Catholic Summer School. He has always been energetic in the cause of education and a great friend of young men. A few years ago the degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on him by Manhattan College. The appointment of Father Lavelle will give general satisfaction, as he has long been one of the most prominent clergymen in the diocese. His unbounded energies and administrative abilities have been put to numerous tests, and whenever he has been called upon he has demonstrated clear and painstaking judgment, foresight, skill in directing, and common sense, a very practical virtue, which admirably balances his other intellectual and moral qualities.

LOST AN ARM.

John Byrne Jr., the fifteen-year-old son of John Byrne, of New Albany, met with an accident Tuesday which resulted in the loss of his left arm. The youth was employed in a box factory and while at work his hand became entangled in the machinery and was so badly mangled that amputation was necessary. He is now resting as well as could be expected at St. Edward's Hospital.